1972-73 Outlook

Maryland wrestling coach William E. "Sully" Krouse heads into his 27th season with a dozen lettermen who have registered 13 Atlantic Coast Conference individual crowns, a tougher and expanded schedule, and 19 consecutive ACC team titles under his belt. Four weight classes will have two lettermen each fighting it out for the starting berth. The Terps will have lettermen starting in every weight class except heavyweight. Five of the 1972 ACC champions return this season, along with three other winners from 1971 and one from 1970. The twelve returning lettermen have a total of 22 letters among themselves.

Last season Maryland finished with a 8-4-1 dual meet record and recorded its 19th consecutive ACC team title, earning nine of the ten individual titles. The Terps hosted both the ACC and NCAA tournaments, setting attendance records in the latter. The grapplers scored four team points in the NCAA, tying for 41st place.

Here is the prospectus by weight class:

118—Senior John Ferrara, 1972 ACC champion, and junior Steve Nickolaus, 1971 ACC champion, return to make this class one of Maryland's strongest. Freshman Greg Filipos, a Pennsylvania State High School runnerup, will bolster the depth at this weight and could push for the starting slot.

126—Senior Ed Doebler won the ACC title at this weight as a freshman, but junior Pete Pappas moved in two years ago and has won the last two ACC titles. Sophomore Jim Smith, third in the Plebe tournament last year adds depth.

134—Junior Tom Pappas, Pete's twin brother and 1972 ACC champion, will start here. His backup will be Tim Rowen, a Maryland State High School champion last year at local High Point high school.

142—ACC champion and Goodman award winner Russ Reid decided to graduate and thus forego his last year of eligibility, leaving this spot wide open. ACC 150-pound champ last year, junior Rob Stover, will probably move down to this weight. Depth will be added by sophomore Rick Umans, runnerup in the 1972 Plebe tournament.

150—Dave Strauss, a junior who won the ACC title in 1971, is the best in this weight class. His backup will come from among the host of candidates at 158.

158—The Myers cousins, senior George, two-time ACC champ, and junior Terry, return as the best at this weight. Sophomores Carl Churilla and John Gibbons, who was ineligible last year, rank as the best among the Myers' many challengers.

167—ACC champ Jack Hoffman, a junior, and letterman Art Peters, a sophomore, are the front runners at this weight. Newcomers are Carl Swindell and Frank Falotico.

177—Senior Rich Ragan, 1971 ACC and NCAA District III champ, is the best here but a challenge will come from ACC 190-pound champ, Pat McCall, whom the coaches might do better at a lower weight class. The loser will probably move up to 190.

190—Senior McCall is the incumbent here, but the coaches are hoping for help from freshman football player Kevin Benson. Transfer Kevin Moriarty offers depth here.

HWT—Junior footballer Cy Jernigan will have to fill the gap left by the departure of Mark Reid. Another freshman football player, John Nash, may challenge Jernigan.

Maryland Hosts 1972 NCAA Finals

The 42nd annual NCAA wrestling championships held at College Park, Md. on March 9-11 began as an "eight-ring circus" but ended as a meet of record-breaking proportions.

Maryland Coach William E. "Sully" Krouse, hosting his second national tournament, predicted that Maryland was "going to have the best nationals ever this year." After the last session on Saturday, there was evidence to support his claim.

Beginning with the first sessions on Thursday when eight mats were used simultaneously to handle the preliminaries, until the finals Saturday evening, 42,500 wrestling fans attended the three-day affair, a NCAA record. The crowd of 12,300 for the finals was a record for a single session and also the biggest crowd to ever attend an amateur wrestling match in the United States. The tournament grossed over $100,000, also a NCAA record.

Eastern schools returned to prominence in national competition as they won six of the ten individual championships, led by Michigan State with three. Wade Schalles of Clarion State was named the tournament's outstanding wrestler as he recorded four falls in his five matches.

Iowa State won the team championship with 103 points, outdistancing second-place Michigan State by 30 points. The Cyclones had three individual champions in Carl Adams (158), Ben Peterson (190), and 400-pound heavyweight Chris Taylor.

Michigan State also had three champions with the Milkovich brothers, Pat (126) and Tom (142), and Greg Johnson (118). Unheralded Clarion State finished sixth with individual champions Schalles (150) and Gary Barton (134). The other Eastern school to win an individual championship was Penn State with Andy Matter (167). The 177-pound champion was Bill Murdock of Washington.

Of the seven returning champions from 1971, four successfully defended their titles, Johnson, Adams, Matter, and Peterson. Oklahoma State's Yoshiro Fujita was injured in his first match and had to default. Slippery Rock's Stan Dziedzic moved up one weight class but lost to Carl Adams in the finals. Greg Wojciechowski of Toledo also made it to the finals, but lost to Chris Taylor.

COACH KROUSE

Coach William E. "Sully" Krouse has been a household name for Maryland wrestling fans during the past quarter century and was instrumental in the elevation of wrestling to a varsity sport in his second year as coach. Entering his 27th year at the head coaching position, Krouse is the dean of Atlantic Coast Conference mat mentors and his record of 144 wins, 77 losses and nine ties reflects the success the wrestling program has attained under his guidance.

Sully had his first championship squad in 1952 when the Terps won the Southern Conference championship, the first of two Southern Conference titles for him. In 1954, Maryland joined the Atlantic Coast Conference and immediately captured the initial wrestling title. Since 1954, Krouse has won an additional 18 ACC championships, never losing the title in the conference. Krouse and his matmen saw the 73-match ACC winning streak snapped in 1970 when Virginia shocked Maryland 24-11. Krouse's men have also dominated the individual statistics winning 138 of a possible 172 individual titles in the 18 years in the ACC.

Krouse was instrumental in bringing the 1960 NCAA Wrestling Championships to Cole Field House and played an important role in getting the championships again in 1972.

Krouse received his degree from Maryland in 1941. While at Maryland, Sully lettered in both wrestling and football. He won the Southern Conference heavyweight wrestling title during his career at College Park and played three seasons at tackle for the football Terps. After receiving his degree from the College of Business and Public Administration, Krouse entered professional football with the Brooklyn Tigers in 1942.

In 1944 he entered the coaching ranks at Southern High in Baltimore where he coached football, wrestling and lacrosse. He returned to his alma mater in 1946 to coach wrestling and also assisted on the football team until 1949.

After his return to Maryland, Sully obtained an undergraduate degree in Physical Education and his Master's in Education. He is now an assistant professor in the College of Physical Education.

Krouse's many achievements earned him induction into Omicron Delta Kappa, the men's national honorary in 1966.

In 1942, Krouse married the late Mary Susan Sullivan of Frostburg, Maryland. His wife passed away in December of 1969. He has one son, Jay, 26, and a daughter, Susanne, 22.

MARYLAND AND KROUSE MILESTONES

Maryland has had only one losing season in the 23 years that wrestling has been a varsity sport.

Victory No. 1 – Defeated Galludet 34-0, 1947-48.

Victory No. 100 – Defeated Penn State 15-9, 1964-65.
Victory No. 125 – Defeated Virginia 30-3, 1968-69.

JOHN C. McHUGH enters his fourth season as assistant wrestling coach at the University of Maryland under head coach Sully Krouse. In September of 1969, McHugh became the Terps' first official assistant coach since wrestling became a varsity sport under Krouse in 1947-48. All of the past wrestling assistants have worked on a voluntary basis, usually while pursuing graduate study.

McHugh was a Pennsylvania state champion from Cheltenham High before enrolling at Maryland where he became one of the best 115 and 123 pounders in Terp history. He was a member of Maryland's first Atlantic Coast Conference team and won two ACC titles.

John served as Sully's student assistant coach before his graduation in 1959 with a degree in Physical Education. He then entered the Marine Corps as a Second Lieutenant and was discharged as a Captain. Following service duty he became wrestling coach at Catholic University. Four years later he moved to American University.

John is married to the former Nancy Nielson, Maryland 1960. They have three children Megan, 10; Kristin, 7; and Craig, 5.

TERP MAT HISTORY IS SUCCESSFUL

The history of wrestling at the University of Maryland has been one studded with success.

Wrestling at Maryland has worked its way up from a supplementary training program for football players to a varsity sport in which the Terps are ranked number one in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

When Dr. Harry Byrd was football coach, he hired a man named Tom Clayton part-time to teach wrestling to his football players. This system of training continued throughout the duration of Dr. Byrd's coaching.

In 1935, Mr. Charles Leroy Mackert, head of the Physical Education department, which was then in the College of Education, promoted wrestling by the intramural system. This was going on in 1937, when William E. "Sully" Krouse came to Maryland as a freshman.

In that year the group of wrestlers of which Sully was a member won the intramurals. This group continued to train together and used its own money to finance wrestling matches against the intramural champions at other schools.

During these years wrestling was not recognized as a sport and the equipment used by the wrestlers was provided by the matmen themselves.

In 1940, Mackert finally got the administration to recognize wrestling as a minor sport. Classified as such, the members of the team received small letters for their performances.

In the following year a man from the Beltsville Farms donated his spare time to help coach the team. This man, Joseph "Deacon" Douglas, apparently worked well for they received a bid to the Southern Conference wrestling tournament which was held at Maryland for the first time.

In 1942, Mr. Joe McDaniels, one of America's all-time great performers in national competitions and later coach at Syracuse University, was hired as an instructor and wrestling coach. Then, just as things seemed to be going well, World War II broke out and all wrestling was dropped.

After the war was over Sully Krouse came back to Maryland as wrestling coach and assistant football coach. In that year, 1945-46, the Terps placed sixth in the Southern Conference tournament.

Two years later, 1947-48, wrestling, as well as golf and soccer, was made a varsity sport.

Then, in 1952, the Maryland grapplers won their first Southern Conference championship. Since that time the championship, now in the ACC, has never been out of Maryland's hands and from all appearances this year will be no different.

From these squads have come such names as: Ernie Fischer, who lost only one dual meet in his career, placed second in the Nationals, and was also on the U.S. Olympic Team; Roney Carroll, four-time Conference winner; All-American Mike Sandusky who placed fourth in the NCAA Tournament; Nick Biondi, Gene Kerin, first two-time winner of ACC Outstanding Wrestler Award in Conference Tournament; All-American wrestlers Marshall Dauberman, Tim Geiger, and Bob Kopnisky. Kopnisky also became Maryland's first NCAA Wrestling Champion.

Bob Karch, 1967 co-captain, was a three-time ACC Champ and Tournament Outstanding Wrestler, was also named OSW in 12 of the 19 dual meets over his last two years.

Gobel Kline became Coach Krouse's second two-time All-American and NCAA Champion in 1969.

MARYLAND'S WRESTLING ALL-AMERICANS

All-Americans are chosen by the American Wrestling Coaches Association on the basis of places won in the NCAA wrestling tournament each year.

From 1928 through 1962 the first four places earned All-American status. Since 1963 the first six places in each weight class are designated as All-Americans.

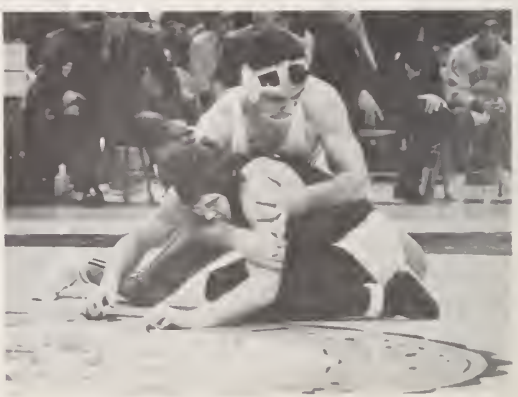
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND WRESTLING ALUMNI

Currently a group of about 150 who were connected with the wrestling team during their undergraduate days at the University of Maryland have come together to form the University of Maryland Wrestling Alumni.

The group meets officially only once each year, that being at the homecoming meet. That meet is followed by the annual party.

The Alumni collect no formal dues, but they have bought blazers for the traveling team with contributions. Other projects are being considered.

Coach Krouse is coordinating the activities of the Alumni. He issues a periodic newsletter to the membership, primarily during the season.



Action from the Homecoming meet three years ago against Penn State.

Coach Sully Krouse with Russ Reid, winner of the Atlantic Coast Conference Plaque for excellence in scholarship and athletics. Reid, the ACC 142-pound champion was a math major and received only one B in college for a near perfect average.
